Barossa Blonde

CURRENTLY OUT OF STOCK.

Barossa Blonde is Seppeltsfield's™ pale pilsener style beer. It is brewed according to Reinheitsgebot which is the German Purity Law of 1516 which declared that beer could only be produced from barley, hops and water.

Typical of a pilsener - which has its origins in the Bohemian town of Pilsen, Barossa Blonde is a pale coloured beer with a 4.5% alcohol content. It is brewed using pilsener malt and aromatic Willamette hops which are popular with craft and specialty brewers.

Palate

Barossa Blonde has been brewed as a thirst quenching beer with a refreshing hoppy tang and a pleasant lingering bitterness. Its distinctive flavour is the result of marrying a full malt European style beer with a fruity hop character.

Wine Analysis

Alc/Vol: 4.5%

Peak Drinking

This is a beer for all seasons; especially the one we are in now.
